YOUTH PERFORMANCES

2016-2017 Season

Ballet San Antonio invites you to join our special abridged, one-hour long, productions for your students! Opening the “Celebration of Love” season is Don Quixote, a famous Cervantes tale filled with romance, and humor. Next, The Nutcracker, a family favorite and holiday tradition with new choreography and festive costumes. To end the season, Sleeping Beauty, the world’s most extravagant story ballet is awakened to new life with fairies, blue birds, and a spell-shattering kiss. These fun-filled and educational productions are for students and adults alike. You will receive first-hand insights of costumes, sets, and staging during intermission. This is a great opportunity to expose students to the arts in our Alamo City and experience a live performance at the Tobin Center for the Performing Arts!

Theatre Etiquette

1. Plan to arrive thirty minutes before the performance begins, stay with your group at all times, and wait for the ushers to help you find your seat.
2. No gum, food, drinks, or candy are allowed in the theatre.
3. Please use the bathroom before the performance begins or at intermission*.
4. All cell phones, pagers, beepers, alarms, must be turned off or set to silent, in order to avoid distraction to dancers and audience members during the performance.
5. When lights dim, you know the show is about to begin, that's your cue to remain silent and pay attention to the stage.
6. The best way to help dancers remain focused is to remain silent and still during the performance and enjoy.
7. No picture taking or video recording is allowed.
8. Please remain seated until the cast has taken their curtain call* at the end. When the performance ends, wait patiently for your group to be called upon to exit.
9. Laughter is permissible at appropriate times. We encourage students to laugh when they see the dancers do something that is funny.
10. Show your appreciation by clapping. The dancers love to hear applause. This shows how much you enjoyed the performance.

*A curtain call (often known as a walk-down or a final bow) occurs at the end of a performance when individuals return to the stage to be recognized by the audience for their performance. In musical theatre, the performers typically recognize the orchestra and its conductor at the end of the curtain call.

*An intermission (American, Canadian English) or interval (British English) is a recess between parts of performance or production, such as for a theatrical play, opera, concert, or film screening.
