Universal City, Texas 78148

(or any other Texas Department of Public Safety office) General Information (210) 945-1900

A Texas ID card is your ticket to boarding an airline, cashing a check and other day-to-day activities that require state issued identification.

The basic procedure is similar to obtaining a driver's license, but without any testing requirements. There are no age restrictions.

Any Texas resident can get one as long as they provide proof of identity. Many parents get them for their children. A photo ID is required for airline travel and by many other organizations.
