

Education Practicum
Year at a Glance (YAG)

First Semester		Second Semester
TEKS 127.326 Practicum in Education and Training is a field-based course that provides students background knowledge of child and adolescent development principles as well as principles of effective teaching and training practices. Students in the course work under the joint direction and supervision of both a teacher with knowledge of early childhood, middle childhood, and adolescence education and exemplary educators in direct instructional roles with elementary-, middle school-, and high school-aged students. Students learn to plan and direct individualized instruction and group activities, prepare instructional materials, assist with record keeping, make physical arrangements, and perform other duties of classroom teachers, trainers, paraprofessionals, or other educational personnel.	Howard Practicum The student demonstrates professional standards/employability skills as required by teaching and training profession. describe and demonstrate professionalism; The student explores the teaching and training field and profession. The student interacts effectively in the role of an educator. apply instructional strategies and concepts within a local educational or training facility; and document, assess, and reflect on instructional experiences.	TEKS 127.326 Practicum in Education and Training is a field-based course that provides students background knowledge of child and adolescent development principles as well as principles of effective teaching and training practices. Students in the course work under the joint direction and supervision of both a teacher with knowledge of early childhood, middle childhood, and adolescence education and exemplary educators in direct instructional roles with elementary-, middle school-, and high school-aged students. Students learn to plan and direct individualized instruction and group activities, prepare instructional materials, assist with record keeping, make physical arrangements, and perform other duties of classroom teachers, trainers, paraprofessionals, or other educational personnel.	Howard Practicum The student demonstrates professional standards/employability skills as required by teaching and training profession. refine a personal career plan in preparation for a career in the field of education or training The student creates and maintains an effective learning environment. apply instructional strategies and concepts within a local educational or training facility; and document, assess, and reflect on instructional experiences.